The only US and NATO military product which does not require power or handling of bulk chemicals tested manned and unmanned to meet MSHA PIB 07-03 requirements.
(see 96 hour test data on back)

ExtendAir® CO2 absorbent is used on submarines worldwide for non-powered emergency use:
- NATO stock number 4240-01-543-3287
- US Navy stock number 6810-01-513-8164
- Meets MSHA PIB guidelines with only 0.187 lbs per man hour

Product Features:
- Proven Technology
  - US Navy NSMRL Report TR1228
  - Br. Royal Navy ICES Report
  - Mine Lifeline, Sept. '07 (manned)
- Simple to use
  - No tools required
  - No power required
  - 1. Open Box
  - 2. Tear open foil bag
  - 3. Hang curtains
  - Non-hazmat disposal after use
- Unequaled performance
  - Absorbs up to 500% faster than granules (passive use)
  - Dramatically reduces dusting compared to granules
  - Superior resistance to shock and vibration damage

ExtendAir® part number OM0608K
- contains 8 curtains per box
- 5.7 net pounds of lithium hydroxide

An ISO 9001:2000 certified company

Contact us for your nearest distributor - 302-731-4100 ext. 525 mineinfo@extendair.com
Micropore Incorporated. 350F Pencader Drive Newark, Delaware 19702
Mine Lifeline Test 9/11/07

96 hour manned test conducted by Mine Lifeline in Logan, WV September 11 - 14, 2007

Contact us for your nearest distributor - 302-731-4100 ext. 525 mineinfo@extendair.com

Micropore Incorporated. 350F Pencader Drive Newark, Delaware 19702